United Heritage Credit Union Hires New Chief Lending Officer

AUSTIN, Texas (June 29, 2023) – United Heritage Credit Union announced the hiring of Matthew Lyman as its new Chief Lending Officer (CLO). In this role, Matthew will be responsible for leading the Credit Union's lending strategy and execution, as well as overseeing the development and delivery of innovative lending products and services.

"Matthew is a highly skilled and experienced leader in the financial services industry. He has a proven track record of success in developing and executing lending strategies, and I'm confident that he will be a valuable asset to our team," said Michael Ver Schuur, President and CEO of United Heritage Credit Union. "His strong understanding of the lending industry will be invaluable as we continue to position our lending business for the future and deliver the best possible experience for our members."

Matthew brings more than 18 years of experience in the lending industry to the role. He has held several lending positions, including most recently as Senior Vice President of Residential and Consumer Lending at Northwest Community Bank in Connecticut, and is a recognized expert in the areas of mortgage operations, residential and consumer loan origination, loan servicing and loan compliance.

Matthew holds a bachelor's degree in Biology from Florida Southern College. Matthew will utilize his various skills to oversee the Credit Union's lending departments and will be responsible for overseeing the Credit Union's loan portfolio, maintaining compliance with all applicable lending regulations and providing training and support to Credit Union staff on lending products and services.

"I am passionate about helping people achieve their financial goals," said Matthew. "I am excited to join United Heritage Credit Union and work with the team to provide our members with the loan products and services they need wherever they are on their financial journey."
